What this project's own operations hold that falls in this episode — counted from the built dimensions and verified against the 1922 text at every build. Nothing here summarises the episode or advises a reader; the dimensions themselves are the record, and every list below links into them.

The book's own words

Dearest Papli

Thanks ever so much for the lovely birthday present. It suits me splendid. Everyone says I am quite the belle in my new tam. I got mummy's lovely box of creams and am writing. They are lovely. I am getting on swimming in the photo business now. Mr Coghlan took one of me and Mrs. Will send when developed. We did great biz yesterday. Fair day and all the beef to the heels were in. We are going to lough Owel on Monday with a few friends to make a scrap picnic. Give my love to mummy and to yourself a big kiss and thanks. I hear them at the piano downstairs. There is to be a concert in the Greville Arms on Saturday. There is a young student comes here some evenings named Bannon his cousins or something are big swells and he sings Boylan's (I was on the pop of writing Blazes Boylan's) song about those seaside girls. Tell him silly Milly sends my best respects.

why these lines: the letter as printed, from its salutation to “sends my best respects” — the choice is the project's (A5)

The warrant is the study's exchange 3, 9 July 2026, titled “The Bloom household: Milly's letter, and Bannon straightened out” — the reading record at p.10. It names “Milly's letter”, which is where these lines sit. The title does not name this episode: that these lines fall in it is verified against the 1922 text itself at every build, not read off any list.
